Naranjo v. Sherman
05 - 106 ERIE
(Civil Rights)

CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Dear Clerk of the Court:

I received your recent return of my filing "Plaintiff's Answer (Objections) To Magistrate Judge's Report And Recommendation"; thank for entry dated January 26th and received by me yesterday January 31st. I received a memorandum effective July 01 - 2005 purporting 'Pro Se' rules. etc.; however it came to me with a sea and tarnish of felt pen markings and I could NOT dutifully read it. I even tried making a copy for clarity purposes which turned out worse! Please resend . . .

YOU previously told me in late 2005 my case was closed (per my . . . Reconsideration - Motion. DENIED) and you wanted me to pay for services thereafter; this was inspite of my telling you something was "very wrong" and you said 'go away'. This as you NOW well know was NOT true; something changed the Court's mind and I would like you to send me a current docketing history to include THIS LETTER and its filing. I will be waiting!

Respectfully submitted. I am.

G.A. Naranjo. Plaintiff
